

2023 Latinos Unidos of Iowa's News
2023 Latinos Unidos of Iowa's Scholarship Recipients

These recipients have declared degrees in the professional fields of study, Masters of Accountancy, PH.D Student Counseling Psychology, Masters Degree in Public Administration; Bachelor's degrees and Associate Degrees. The Colleges and Universities that match our scholarships are Central College, Grand View University, Mercy School of Health & Science; participating colleges and Universities included Buena Vista University, Clark University, Drake University, ISU, U of I, Luther College, UNI. Community Colleges included Iowa Lakes Community College, and Urban Campus, DMACC.

Poster filled with Presenters and Sponsors

Lena Avila Robison, President, Reyna and Veronica

Grupo Esencia Añeja

July

Lunch & Learn

Alma Viareall, La Ley, Diversity Magazine, etc
Maru Gochez, co worker,
Mary L Chapman, Evelyn Davis Center
Joy Espisto, Evelyn Davis Center

August

Lunch & Learn

James Mahoney, DMU, Professor of Podiatric Medicine and Surgery
Alex Limon, Marketing & Communications Coordinator at Proteus

September

Lunch & Learn

Safe Babies Coordinator
Denise Moore
Eva Morales

Latino Festival

Latino Unidos of Iowa's Booth hosting 5 countries: Bolivia, Ecuador, El Salvador, España and Nicaragua.

October

Lunch & Learn

Rosario Morquez, Humana Health Insurance
Armida Gonzalez, Humana Health Insurance
Amner Martinez, Infinite Resources Plus

November

Lunch & Learn

Jon Taber, Casey's
Reyna Immerfall, State Farm
Blanca Lopez, ISU Extension Nutrition

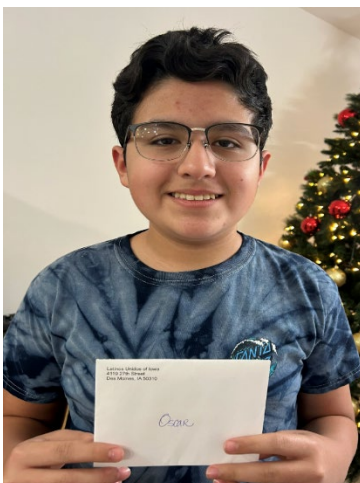

December Retreat

Reyna, Ella, Lena, Mary, Tisha,
Laura, Juan, Danica. Across
Oscar, Danielle Marcelo

Oscar is a freshman at Dowling Catholic High School. Oscar volunteered at the Scholarship Ceremony and in October sorted, filed, and prepared documents for binders. Ella Immerfall is in junior high school in Altoona. Ella helped secure gift bags to the scholarship recipients at the Scholarship Ceremony and volunteered at the Latino Festival booth.

Oscar Rodriguez, volunteer.

Ella Immerfall, volunteer.

Julie Solis-Alvarado and daughter

Jon Taber and daughter Chole

An Awesome gathering of Latinos Unidos of Iowa Board, members, and friends.

We will continue to give back to our community with our scholarships and to provide additional resources for our community.

We have a fantastic calendar of events and programs for 2024 with opportunities to showcase your business or organization.

We value our members, sponsors, and friends!

Thank you,

Latinos Unidos of Iowa, Inc.